

MUNI MEMO TO YOU

GIANT ROOTERS—YOUR MUNI IS READY

When the 1962 National League Champion Giants take the field against Houston for the opening game of the 1963 major league baseball season, the Muni will again be ready with special service to carry the fans safely and efficiently to Candlestick Park. Of the nearly 4,800,000 spectators who have attended the home games since 1960, your Muni has carried more than 865,000, or more than 18 per cent. For the modest fare of 30 cents, or a valid transfer and 15 cents, you can enjoy a comfortable trip to the ball park without traffic or parking problems. If you recall last season's dramatic play-off series with the Dodgers, and the down-to-the finish-line thriller against the Yankees, you'll want to watch those Giants this year—and go Muni, the happy way!

ALONG THE MISSION TRAIL

Two significant anniversaries make this a timely occasion for a visit to Mission Dolores, a colorful San Francisco landmark vividly recalling the Spanish influence which permeates so much of California's history.

This year marks the 250th anniversary of the birth of Father Junipero Serra, on the island of Mallorca, and recalls the founding of nine California missions by Father Serra during his lifetime, of which Mission Dolores was the sixth.

A second commemorative occasion was the laying of the cornerstone of the present church by Father Palou, on April 25, 1782, just 181 years ago. There is much of interest to intrigue the visitor to the mission. To be seen Historic Mission Dolores is a never-failing source of inspiration to visitors seeking the flavor of early California Spanish tradition.

are hand carved altars and statues transported from Mexico in 1780, Pascal candles made by the early Indians, a revolving tabernacle from Manila and other objects of art. In the adjacent cemetery are graves of many early pioneers whose names are associated with vigilante days, resting amidst a luxuriant growth of colorful flowers.

Located at 16th Street and Dolores Street, the Mission may be reached by the No. 22 Fillmore Line and the J Church Line. Lines 26, Valencia, and 33, Ashbury, are within two blocks, and all Mission Street lines are three blocks away.
